TIES UP FREIGHT

There is something of a shortage of coal on the waterfront and the arrival of the Tillie E. Starbuck is being anxiously awaited. She is now 63 days out from Newcastle, a remarkably long voyage for her, as she is known as a fast sailer. Coal is being held for the various big liners that are to call here this week and next and the result is that an outside steamer would have a hard time getting any of the black diamonds. If the ship sighted by the Mauna Loa off Molokai last Friday is the Starbuck it is time for her to be putting in an appearance. The army is to get a consignment of coal on the Sheridan next month. This is coming from Japan and will fill the hole made by the failure of the Dix to leave the 5,000 tons that she was expected to discharge here.

The slow passages being made by the Starbuck and other ships have caused a delay in sugar shipments as well as a searcity of coal. Nearly 13,000 tons of sugar are piled up in the warehouses in this city. This is the largest amount of sugar piled up in this city at one time for years. At the height of the shipping season there is a scarcity of ships to carry the crop away and the harbor has the appearance of a dull season. The warehouse men do not agree that it is a dull time for they are taxing their energies to find a place for the enormous amount of sugar that is pouring in until ships arrive to take it away.

Sierra May Come.

If the Sierra hastens she should be n tonight at about $:30 p. m., though it is possible that she will not arrive until tomorrow morning. She will FROM SEATTLE AND TACOMA VIA bring nine days' mail. The Mongolia will arrive Friday with a few hours' later mail.

SELLER FOUND DEAD

Peter Ninoa, an old Hawaiian flower seller, was found dead at 12:10 this morning by Officers Haumea and Akohi. The officers were just off duty and were returning home, when they found the body lying on the sidewalk near Palama junction. There were no marks of violence on the body except a slight lump on the back of the head, evidently caused when the man fell on the sidewalk. A coroner's jury consisting of William Meyers, Wilson Awa, Joseph Kauimakacle, J. F. Rodrigues, M. A. Hart and L. Withington was quickly summoned and viewed the body. An autopsy will be held and the inquest is set for Friday at 7 p. m.
